

CIVIL AIR PATROL
South Carolina Wing Headquarters
PO Box 280065
Columbia, SC 29228-0065

SC Wg Supplement 2
CAPR100-1 VOLUME I (E)
10 Nov 2003

Communications - Electronics

COMMUNICATIONS

CAPR 100-1 VOLUME I (E), 1 August 1996, is supplemented as follows:

4.3 The Communicator Badge. The Basic Communicator Badge is designed to recognize those individuals involved in communications. The requirements for this award are the same as those for the Senior Member Training Program, Technician Level in Communications (CAPP 214).

Approving Authority: Wing Director of Communications.

Award Media: Basic Communicator Badge to be worn IAW CAPM 39-1, Civil Air Patrol Uniform Manual.

4-6. Application for Communicator Badge. The communicator badge (basic, senior, master) should be applied for on CAPF 2A, Request for and Approval of Personnel Actions. The unit communications officer will sign as requester. The wing director of communications will initial the appropriate unit/wing authorization lines and forward to the appropriate commander for signature. Documentation supporting the eligibility of the member will be listed in the remarks section. The CAPF 2A and all supporting documentation will be sent to the appropriate approving authority.

OFFICIAL:

SAUL H. HYMAN, Colonel, CAP
Wing Commander

NANCY Z. GLEATON, 1st Lt, CAP
Wing Director of Administration

SUMMARY OF CHANGES: Changes approving authority for Basic Communicator Badge; changes authority for requesting the communication badge on CAPF 2A.

OPR: DOK

Distribution: In accordance with CAPR 5-4.