Wing Commanders from 50 states, Puerto Rico and the District of Columbia are gathered in Atlanta to consider a full agenda. The National Board is expected to go into Executive Session on Thursday morning, August 9, 2007 to discuss procedural and organizational issues. When the meetings open to all members and the public, the agenda items will be considered, with full discussion available to members who can watch the meetings on <http://www.capchannel.com/home>. Over the past several days, there has been special training and reports in communication, public affairs, critical incident stress management and in other areas. South Carolina Wing members have been attending these meetings. The public affairs training, lasting two full days, ended with a tour of the CNN studios.
