The 2008 South Carolina Wing Conference is right around the corner. It will take place on Saturday, 27 September 2008, at the Carolina Skies Club at Shaw AFB. The deadline for the regular registration rate is 15 September 2008 (postmark date). Late registration will be accepted after 15 September 2008 or on-site the morning of the start of the conference.

A full day of activities is scheduled, including a special program for cadets. The Annual Awards Banquet will be Saturday evening at the same location.

While USAF blues and either corporate uniform are the preferred dress at wing, region and national conference meetings and classes, the golf shirt uniform is acceptable. Flight suits are not acceptable. For a banquet, semi-formal civilian dress, such as a suit and tie for men and dressy attire for women, is acceptable, although formal and mess dress is preferred.
